CUMA Curling

- CUMA Bonspiel will be held annually. Historically it will be held in progression as follows:

1.	Saskatoon	2.	Nipawin
3.	Swift Current	4.	Prince Albert
5.	Estevan/Weyburn	6.	Regina
7.	Yorkton	8.	Lloydminster
9.	Moose Jaw	10.	Kindersley

- The host committee will provide a budget to the CUMA Treasurer who will then supply the host committee with an advance.
- The host committee will be responsible for the financial accounting and provide CUMA a detailed recap of the event. The host committee will hold back one half of the profit for the current year bonspiel to be donated to a charity of their choice with the other half of the profit returned to CUMA.
- The host Committee will pass all records to the Treasurer and a copy of these records will be provided to the next year's host committee.
- The host committee will be provided with free entry to the following year event, up to four curlers.

Other CUMA Functions

- Develop relationships and work jointly with other provincial/national associations, such as CUMAM and CUMA Ontario
- Strategic partners and others, at the discretion of the CUMA Executive, may participate in CUMA functions on a non-member basis.

6. Directors Responsibilities

Meetings in Region

- Shortly after the Region election, it will be the responsibility of the outgoing director to meet with the new director to:
 - Review the duties and responsibilities of the CUMA Executive.
 - Present and explain resource material available. (ie) Administrative Guidelines
 - Highlight any current decisions and concerns of the CUMA Executive and the Region he/she represents.
 - Answer any questions of the incoming director.
- The President of CUMA will also be available for any assistance desired.

CREDIT UNION MANAGERS ASSOCIATION

Administrative Guidelines for CUMA Executive

CUMA Membership

- Share membership list with the Region members on a regular basis to ensure information is accurate.
- Ensure that Region members are aware of qualifications for membership and method to calculate years of service.
- Assist credit unions by providing instructions on the completion of new member applications and ensure that they get sent to our CUMA Coordinator who is responsible to administer the Provincial database on behalf of the Executive.

CUMA Executive

- Directors shall hold office for three years; provided that a director elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term. (Bylaw 5)
- The new Director is expected to start functioning in his/her new role at the first executive meeting following the CUMA AGM by representing his/her Region on motions or votes that take place and providing reports on behalf of his/her Region.
- Expected to take on the role of President, Vice-President, Secretary or Treasurer for at least a 1-year term.
- Election of officers will take place at the Executive meeting immediately prior to the conference . Results of the elections will be announced at the AGM.
- Attend all CUMA Executive meetings.
- Assist with planning, organizing and running the CUMA Convention each year.
- Actively promote a replacement for your Region as you near the end of your term.

7. Long Term Service Awards

- Long Term Service Awards are made on a one-time occasion after 25 years using December 31 of each year as the cut off date. A person must be a dues-paying member of CUMA when anniversary is reached.
- The awards will form part of the agenda for CUMA seminar with a gift presentation.
- The costs for long-term service awards are taken out of convention revenues. Costs must be recognized when establishing membership fees in annual budget process.
- CUMA will:
 - Recognize actual years of service in a credit union or co-operative organization
 - Recognize years of service without adjusting for family leave
 - Recognize years of service regardless if there has been a break in that service
 - Rely on individual credit unions to determine if they have a 25 year recipient. In the event of uncertainty, the Regional Director may confirm CUMA membership records with the credit union.
- CUMA will not:
 - Recognize years of service with other financial institutions

CREDIT UNION MANAGERS ASSOCIATION
Administrative Guidelines for CUMA Executive
